

Contents

How to Solve a Case	4
Reading the Clues	5
A Worked Example	6
Case Log	9
Easy Cases (Cases 1–28)	10
Medium Cases (Cases 29–56)	68
Hard Cases (Cases 57–80)	126
Solutions	176

A Will Unread

Mr. Sedley, the family solicitor, summoned everyone to Harrowgate for the reading of the will, and they came in one by one as evening drew in. At 9:00, when he failed to appear in the drawing room, the housekeeper went looking and found him dead in the Billiard Room. The will was missing from his case.

THE SUSPECTS

Captain Hale, a retired sea captain

Motive: Mr. Sedley had called him a coward in front of the whole county.

Mr. Pike, the butler

Motive: Mr. Sedley had caught him selling the family silver.

Dr. Ashby, the family doctor

Motive: Mr. Sedley had threatened to report his careless prescriptions.

Tobias Crane, the younger son

Motive: Mr. Sedley had talked his father into cutting off his allowance.

PLACES: Portrait Gallery, Billiard Room, Kitchen, Wine Cellar

OBJECTS: Brass Doorstop, Silk Curtain Cord, Bronze Bust, Fire Poker

THE CLUES

1. Whoever was in the Kitchen had the Bronze Bust.
2. Captain Hale had either the Fire Poker or the Silk Curtain Cord.
3. The prints on the Bronze Bust belong to either Captain Hale or Mr. Pike.
4. The parlor maid is sure the Silk Curtain Cord was either in the Kitchen or in the Portrait Gallery, in the hands of whoever was there.
5. Tobias Crane had neither the Silk Curtain Cord nor the Brass Doorstop.
6. The muddy footprints in the Wine Cellar were left by whoever had the Fire Poker.

NOTES

DETECTIVE'S HUNCH

Before you start the grid, who do you suspect, and why? Check yourself at the end.

My hunch: _____ Was I right? Yes / No

Case 1 Grid

X = no O = yes

	Portrait Gallery	Billiard Room	Kitchen	Wine Cellar	Brass Doorstop	Silk Curtain Cord	Bronze Bust	Fire Poker
Captain Hale
Mr. Pike
Dr. Ashby
Tobias Crane
Brass Doorstop
Silk Curtain Cord
Bronze Bust
Fire Poker

NOTES

The body was found in the Billiard Room. Who is the killer, and what was the weapon?

Killer: _____ Weapon: _____

Enjoyed these?

These pages are a free sample from
Whodunit Logic Puzzles

The full book has 80 murder mysteries, easy to hard,
with step-by-step solutions.

Find it on Amazon by searching the title, or use the link on the page where you found this sample.